

Question 1

Choose the correct answer from the given options:

[5]

- (i) Lydia had to present a school project on the various stages of the _____.
(a) animal cycle (b) germination of seeds
(c) water cycle (d) water purification
- (ii) How old is Mani?
(a) five (b) six (c) seven (d) ten
- (iii) What was the remedy Sunaina's granny gave her when she had fever?
(a) a warm bath (b) homemade decoction
(c) a painkiller (d) hot water
- (iv) "Dear children, we should dress always neatly and well." Who said these words?
(a) Jeena teacher (b) Arun's dad
(c) Gopika's mom (d) Lydia's teacher
- (v) To maintain good relationship it's important that _____.
(a) we ignore their feelings (b) we don't listen to their words
(c) we forget everything (d) we apologize and forgive
- (vi) Your sibling asks for help with their homework. What should you do?
(a) help them patiently (b) refuse to help
(c) make fun of their difficulty (d) ignore their request
- (vii) When we don't admit our mistake, we tend to do the same mistakes again." What does this statement imply?
(a) mistakes are not important
(b) it's best to make mistakes
(c) admitting mistakes help us learn from them
(d) ignoring mistakes make us more perfect
- (viii) Who was waiting for the signal with his dad?
(a) Gopika (b) Arun (c) Mani (d) Alex
- (ix) Geetha was so annoyed because, _____.
(a) Gopika played with her
(b) she got punishment from mom
(c) she lost her game
(d) Gopika teased her
- (x) You witness your friend stealing a small item from a store. What would you do?
(a) encourage your friend to return the item
(b) ignore what happened
(c) steal something too
(d) keep the secret and do nothing

Question 2

Fill in the blanks:

[5]

- (i) _____ are the beautiful gift that God has given me.
- (ii) Akhila saw a _____ lady shivering on the road side.
- (iii) We should listen to our _____ which helps us to do good and be good.
- (iv) Dress is an _____ part of our _____.
- (v) _____ came running from the kitchen hearing the _____
- (vi) To _____ is human, to forgive is _____
- (vii) God comes to us in the _____ of the poor.
- (viii) We should see _____ in every person especially in the _____.
- (ix) Aleena is _____ and _____ girl.
- (x) We should maintain _____ in our dress.

Question 3

State whether the following sentences are true or false:

[4]

- (i) Akhila removed her jacket and gently covered the lady with it, then she contacted the old age helpline and informed them.
- (ii) When you are not sure about what is appropriate to wear don't ask anyone.
- (iii) Jeena teacher was happy to see students following the fashion of the day.
- (iv) Geetha was concentrating on a mobile game.
- (v) Aleena lives in a big house .
- (vi) Many people in this world are poor and live in miserable conditions, due to their fault.
- (vii) Our dress should be comfortable and make you comfortable before others.
- (viii) Mani quickly handed his box of chocolates to Arun.

Question 4

Answer the following in a sentence or two:

[12]

- (i) How should we dress?
- (ii) Why do we need to wear clothes that are comfortable for us and others?
- (iii) What will happen when we don't admit our mistakes?
- (iv) How do we love God?
- (v) Why did Arun's dad feel very proud of his son?
- (vi) You see a homeless person who looks hungry. How should you respond?
- (vii) What is conscience?
- (viii) How does God work through us?
- (ix) What are the different ways you can help the poor around you?
- (x) Why should we listen to our conscience?
- (xi) What is the speciality of Joe's grandpa?
- (xii) From whom should we take the guidance, if we are not sure about what is appropriate to wear?

Question 5

(i) Answer in detail:

[6]

- (a) Why was Lydia thankful to God for her grandmother?
- (b) Why did Geetha break Gopika's doll ?
- (c) What is the best way to check the modesty of our dress?

(ii) Write a short note on Aleena's family.

[3]

(iii) Write any three situations when you need to say 'sorry'.

[3]

Question 6

Read the following passage and answer the questions given below:

[2]

A young boy found a beautiful, rare bird trapped in a cage at the market. Though he had little money, he bought the bird, carefully opened the cage, and released it back into the wild. The boy understood that true happiness comes not from possessing things, but from the act of kindness and compassion towards others."

- (i) What did the boy do when he saw the trapped bird?
- (ii) Why do you think the boy chose to release the bird instead of keeping it?
- (iii) How did the boy show his compassion towards the bird?
- (iv) What important lesson does this story teach about kindness?
